

Schools Are Open !

Eric Klapper, Executive Director, along with very eager “crew” cut the ribbon to mark the official opening of the new building. Located on the grounds of the Pan American Expo, the building design gives a nod to the rich architectural history of Buffalo.

Tapestry Charter School officially opened its new K-5 elementary school building, located on the current campus on Great Arrow Avenue, with a ribbon cutting ceremony on Tuesday, September 4th. The public charter school, serving over 800 students in the city of Buffalo, was founded in 2001 by passionate individuals who shared a commitment to school choice, accountability, and excellence. Tapestry Charter School is an arts-integrated, tuition-free, nationally recognized, K-12 public charter school. Their mission is to educate and inspire a diverse community of learners by engaging them in rigorous real-world learning experiences which prioritize intellectual, social and emotional growth.

We Remember September 11th

The anniversary of the September 11th terrorist attacks is a solemn remembrance of the lives lost, as well as a symbol of the nation’s resilience.

In observance of the 17th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks, nearly 3,000 flags-- one for each of the victims who lost their lives--will be placed on the front lawn of the American Red Cross Western New York Chapter headquarters, 786 Delaware Avenue on September 6th. Organized by the Western New York Families of September 11th, this annual tribute provides visitors and those who simply pass by the Clement Mansion a moment to reflect on the tragedy and remember the lives lost.

BPD Safety Tips

The Buffalo Police Department would like to remind drivers and pedestrians to be extra careful now that a new school year has started. Here are a few tips: Pay special attention to all traffic signals and crossing guards. Choose the most direct way with the fewest street crossings and, if possible, with intersections that have traffic controls. Advise children to be ready for their buses and to wait for the bus to come to a complete stop before approaching it. If You're driving, the area 10 feet around a school bus is the most dangerous for children; stop far enough back to allow them to safely enter and exit the bus. Don't leave your children until they are safely on school grounds. Drive slowly when approaching children who are riding bicycles and walking near the street. Watch your speed when entering school zones.

“Angel man!”

“Angel man!” I have been called many things in my life but this was the first time I was referred to as “angel man.” I kind of liked it and I hope it sticks and then again, I deserved it.

This is the story:
My wife and my daughter-in-law went out to Menne Nursery to have some soil tested. While they were there my wife noticed and was attracted to this sitting angel who resembled one of our grandchildren. It also reminded her of our trip to Paris and the gardens in Versailles loaded with cherubs. She fell in love with it.

That night as we sat in the backyard on the swings, enjoying the warm night air, she was telling our daughter-in-law about this adorable sitting angel she saw but felt it was just a little too much money. She wants a new kitchen and thought this was not a practical purchase at this time. She did hint that it would make a perfect Christmas present though.

I sat there listening pretending to not be listening as the plan formulated in my mind. I would go the next morning and buy it for her. Why wait until Christmas? She could enjoy it the rest of the summer if it meant that much to her. So just to be sure they still had it, I called Menne in the morning. They asked which one it was as they had dozens. I wasn’t sure and asked if they could find the girl that took care of them. She returned to say there was no one there who remembered, but there were two other possibilities. Karen comes in at eleven and Jennifer won’t be in for a couple of days. So I left my number and hoped they would call me back.

It was Karen and she remembered the whole thing. She said my wife was so excited that she even offered to give her 20% off if she wanted it that bad. “Could I still get the 20% off?” I asked. “Sure, come on down,” she replied.

So after lunch I drove all the way there with great anticipation. As soon as I walked into the place and asked for Karen, they asked if I was the angel man. “I guess you could call me that,” I said. Seems the story had spread throughout the store that I was coming in to pick up an angel to surprise my wife. Hence the name “angel man.” I’ve been called a lot worse.

The clerks there were so excited to be a part of it they made a big bow to put around it and helped select a card. I needed help loading it into the van and the nice fellow at the nursery helped me. It was quite heavy.

I brought my prize home and as my wife was out shopping, I set it up on the bench in her garden. Went back to work to wait for her to return home. She got home about five, and

I waited, along with some of our office staff. By now they were all aware of what was going on. Five-thirty and still no call. One of the office girls, leaves at five and wanted so bad to hear her reaction. So I called home. “Dor, did I leave my glasses out in the garden?” I said, holding in a giggle. I had put her on speakerphone so my sons could share her glee. She came back and said, “No, they’re not there.” We looked at each other with our hands over our mouths to not give it away, and I said, “Try the bench, they might be there.” She retorted, “You said the garden!” “Please try the bench,” I pleaded. The three of us waited for the next sound wondering if it would be a wow or what. She came back to the phone and said softly, “Oh honey, it’s so beautiful.” I kind of felt like the “angel man” at this point. When I told my wife that they called me that at the nursery, she picked up on it and called me that all weekend. So I’ll take it for as long as it lasts, or until I do something wrong again.

Just as an update, I wrote this column 20 years ago and due to this short week did not write and used an old one. Too busy trying to stay cool. The name “Angel man” lasted about a week. Now we have a dog named “Angel” and whenever she calls her, I think she is calling me. I don’t think so.

Do you have a birthday greeting you would like to see here? Birthdays, anniversaries, interesting pictures, short stories or even a 500 word column of interest to your neighbors. Send them to me and I will see what I can do. Nothing political or controversial. Send to Jbortze@aol.com

Cyber Warfare

At eleven AM, on the eleventh day of the eleventh month of 2018, the world will commemorate the end of World War I, which back in the day was called “the war to end all wars.” But, it didn’t.

“In fact, the 20th Century was a particularly bellicose period in the history of the world. And, a hundred years later – in the 21st Century – a new way to wage war has emerged. It’s called cyber warfare and it does not rely on bullets and battleships. Rather, instead of brave foot soldiers, artillery brigades, fighter pilots and sea captains, this new kind of conflict relies on sedentary computer technicians and the World Wide Web.

A few months ago, Army Lt. Gen. Paul Nakasone, was appointed as the new Director of the National Security Agency [NSA].

During his confirmation hearings, General Nakasone stated, “the current level and tempo of cyber attacks is not tolerable. Our adversaries see opportunity for strategic advantage through continuous activity. We must act purposefully to frustrate their intentions, increase their costs, and decrease their likelihood of success.”

The most obvious threats posed by the cyber enemies of the U.S. are designed to target the nation’s infrastructure and financial institutions, according to Weber. “But, there is an even more dangerous peril – the ability of bad actors to use the Internet to create chaos and revolutionary dissension via social media. One can only wonder if the intense anti-government protests, in the guise of a movement to bring down President Trump, are not the carefully orchestrated activities of cyber enemies, both domestic and foreign.”

The AMAC chief concludes that Internet warfare is “a clear and present danger for the U.S., one with consequences that are just as deadly as traditional armed military conflict. It has long been the preferred method of targeting us for mayhem and murder among radical Islamic terrorists. Remember, ISIS effectively used the World Wide Web to declare war on the civilized world.”

Stream & Lake Map of New York

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor. Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill. But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map
Professor Higbee's "Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

Tunnel to Tower Foundation Honors Hero

Join the Stephen Siller Tunnel to Towers Foundation on September 8th at 8:00 am, (the run starts at 9:11 am), at the Bellevue Fire Hall, 511 Como Park Blvd, in Cheektowaga to honor the memory of those lost on 9/11, thank our First Responders, and help our military personnel.

This 5K figuratively retraces the steps of a FDNY firefighter killed in the attacks of 9/11. Firefighter Stephen Siller ran from Brooklyn, under the East River through the 2 mile long Brooklyn/Battery Tunnel, and up to the Towers of the World Trade Center to help in the rescue and firefighting efforts. Stephen lost his life in one of the collapses.

Runners and walkers follow a route that passes signs remembering each of the firefighters, police officers, and EMS workers killed in the attacks. They also pass signs for each of the Western New Yorkers killed in the Towers, on the planes, or in the Pentagon, and the 77 Western New York military personnel killed in the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. People of all ages and abilities are encouraged to come out and participate to help us honor the sacrifice of so many.

In memory of this brave Firefighter, the Foundation developed Smart Home Program to support those who sacrificed life and limb protecting our freedoms and safety. The program designs and builds smart homes that allow our most catastrophically injured service members to lead more independent lives. To date, the Foundation has delivered, started construction, or is in the design stage of a total of 75 smart homes. To register or for more information go to T2TRun.org.

Help for Homeowners in Foreclosure

New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

Summons and Complaint
You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the summons and complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the summons and complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself.

Sources of Information and Assistance

The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid office, there are government agencies and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with your lender during this process.

To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by the New York State Department of Financial Services at (800) 342-3736 or visit the Department's website at <http://www.dfs.ny.gov>.

Rights and Obligations
YOU ARE NOT REQUIRED TO LEAVE YOUR HOME AT THIS TIME. You have the right to stay in your home during the foreclosure process. You are not required to leave your home unless and until your property is sold at auction pursuant to a judgment of foreclosure and sale.

Regardless of whether you choose to remain in your home, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR PROPERTY and pay property taxes in accordance with state and local law.

Foreclosure Rescue Scams
Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services. 33-36
