HNPYBL Cancels Season

As the coronavirus has spread around the globe in recent months, our local youth sports teams are being impacted with cancellations and disappointment.

By Bill Snyder

After registering over 700 boys and girls since January first to play baseball and softball and holding a successful food drive for needy families in the Parking Lot of Shoshone Park on May 9th, the board of directors of the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League decided late last week to cancel this 2020 baseball season due to New York States required guidelines for youth activities since the Coronavirus pandemic.

Longtime League president Don Morris and the 20 member coaches that make up the board issued a brief statement this past Monday evening: "It is with deep regret that we must announce the cancellation of this season. We have carefully reviewed the State's 14 page document for opening youth sports, along with the guidance from the City of Buffalo and determined that such restrictions would have been difficult to universally apply."

For the first time since 1957, the history of North Buffalo Baseball, 28 years as its president, Morris has never seen anything Continued on page three.

Buffalo Reform Agenda

Mayor Byron W. Brown has announced the implementation of the first phase of the restorative policing policies which were contained in the Buffalo Reform Agenda he announced on June 9, 2020. The Buffalo Reform Agenda is a community-driven outline for achievable and immediate initiatives the City of Buffalo is committed to taking to shift its law enforcement model to a restorative model that strengthens its ties to the community it is meant to serve. The action steps being announced today are part of an effort to ensure greater transparency, equity and fairness for black residents who live in the City of Buffalo beginning with community-police relations.

The first reform actions being implemented by the City this week, which will be in place by Wednesday, June 24th, are:

- Buffalo Police officers are directed to issue appearance tickets instead of handcuffing and transporting suspects for low-level offenses unless New York State law mandates an arrest or the individuals present a danger to themselves or others. Buffalo Police Commissioner Byron Lockwood today issued General Order #2020-009 Continued on page six.

Call 8-1-1 Before You Dig

NYSEG, a subsidiary of AVANGRID Inc., today reminded contractors and homeowners to have underground utilities marked before digging – this is essential to protect themselves and others from injury and to prevent damage to underground utility lines. Remember to contact Dig Safely New York by calling 811 at least two and not more than 10 full working days before the start of any excavation project.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, many New York residents are using the additional time at home to work on their yards or start home improvement projects. But whether you're a do-it-yourselfer or a contractor, it's important to call 811 before any work that requires excavation or digging, such as fences, decks or patios.

Every year, there are dozens of incidents involving third-party damage to NYSEG underground natural gas and electric facilities. Many of these incidents that could put people's lives in danger and interrupt essential utility service can be avoided by having utilities marked out before work begins.

"Contractors are required by law to call Dig Safely New York before digging, and we strongly encourage do-it-yourselfers to call as well," said Greg George Vice President of Gas Engineering at NYSEG. "Whether you're putting in a foundation or just Continued on page six.

Memorable Sabres Moments

NHL President Gary Bettman gets booed whenever he shows his face at an NHL arena. Here's one reason why. On June 19th 1999 the Buffalo Sabres are hosting the Dallas Stars in game six of the Stanley Cup finals. The Sabres are trailing three games to two in the series and the score is tied 1-1 after 60 minutes. Neither team can score during the first two overtimes periods and the score remains 1-1 after 100 minutes of play.

The third overtime is about three quarters finished, and players are getting tired. One more goal from Dallas and Buffalo's season will be over. Brett Hull, the master of finding open ice somehow slips past the Sabres defense and plants himself alone in front of the crease. The puck comes to Hull and his deflection attempt is stopped. A battle ensues for the loose puck between Hull and Sabres goalie Dominik Hasek.

Buffalo center Brian Holzinger zeroed in on Hull but rather than simply bump Hull off the play he made a feeble and ineffective attempt to play the puck, missed it and continued skating away from the play leaving Hull all alone in front of the Buffalo goal.

Hull kicked the puck with his left skate to his right side and swept the puck past the helpless goalie and into the net. After 114 minutes and 51 seconds of play the game was over. The series was over. Dallas won their first Stanley Cup.

But there was a dispute. Did Brett Hull violate a rule that should have negated the goal? This controversy would stay strong for several years and still taints the championship today.

In 1999 there was a rule that prohibited a player from having any part of his body in the attacking crease without possession of the puck, and any goal scored that resulted from this violation would subsequently be waved off. The puck was loose at various times and it could be argued either way as to whether Hull had full possession of the puck. His foot also was in the crease at various times. When

Hull kicks the puck from his left skate to his stick just prior to the goal, was the time period in which he was not touching the puck considered possession? If so, the goal was correctly ruled legal, as his skate was in the crease while the puck was traveling to his stick, but if not, it should have been waved off.

Any Sabres fan will likely tell you the team was cheated out of a chance to win that night. League apologists insisted the goal was reviewed and ruled legal. But people in a position to know have advised me that the goal was not reviewed.

So I asked former NHL referee Ron Hoggarth who gave me his opinion of that play on the 18th anniversary of that game: No Goal!

Brett Hull Dallas Stars 1999 Stanley Cup, winning goal, Buffalo Sabres Dominik Hasek foot in the crease.

like this before. The provisions set forth by the State and the Center for Disease Control (CDC) makes it impossible to put out a meaningful schedule.

"The gamebreaker was only being allowed to play on half of the Park's eight diamonds at a time. With 750 players registered, we would have had to tell 300 or so kids you can't play so that the rest can. I was not willing to do that. My job has always been to get as many kids playing as possible, he shared later. "We are deeply saddened that we were forced into this decision."

All house league games from tee-ball, rookie, minor and major divisions for both the girls and boys which consists of the majority of kids playing on over 65 teams are affected by this decision. Most if not all have paid their $95 registration fees and were ready to play a 12 or 14 game season and got ready for the playoffs. At HNP, every team makes the playoffs.

Northwest Buffalo Beat

by Joe Bartz

Richard Long - A Victim of Police Brutality

I mentioned last week, there were two North Buffalo stories about Buffalo Police. Last week I wrote about the heroism of two officers in taking down a vicious perpetrator. One lost his life in the exchange of bullets. That was the story of how good policemen doing their job put their lives on the line every day.

One of Buffalo's most horrifying cases of police brutality took place right here on a North Buffalo corner on June 25th, 1977. I believe it was North Drive and Cunard. Richard Long an 18 year old white male, recent high school graduate and was planning his first semester at Buffalo State College. He made the mistake of cutting off a car that contained two off duty Buffalo Police Officers and two businessmen on Kenmore Avenue. A chase ensued and the pursuing car was able to catch the Long car in front of his home at 247 North Drive. He was dragged out of his brother's Porsche at 2:30 in the morning. Allegedly the two officers and one of the businessmen proceeded to beat and stomp the young man to death. The men had been at a bachelor party and were headed to Mulligans for a few more cocktails. There they bragged to friends about the beating and because Long wouldn't or couldn't get up they kept kicking him in the head. Witnesses said there were eight men altogether including other officers, but only three were charged and convicted of criminally negligent homicide. They served 18 months of a four year sentence.

Maybe the point is that with all that is going on now, it is evident that many years ago and today there are some policemen who should never wear a badge. In this case we had two men who thought nothing of violently beating and stomping a teenager to death. No they were not wearing a badge but did they have the temperament of a person who vowed to serve and protect the public? In all the years I have been associated with the local police I have seen mostly good caring men and women. Yet, in all honesty I have seen some that should never have been given the honor to serve. I used to wonder, how these people made it through the academy. They just have that nasty attitude and act like the uniform makes them some kind of god.

Those who have close relationships with the police know of what I speak. More than likely there are some officers who feel that way about certain fellow team members. I hope not. Like so many others we have lived a peaceful life because we have someone to call when we need help. How many times were we relieved when we see that blue uniform appear. Unfortunately sometimes you have to take the good with the bad. I feel that police officers and nurses are special people. They are there when you need them the most.

Ask Rusty - About Special Extra Earnings for Military Service

Dear Rusty: How do I find out if I get any extra earnings for my military service of 28 years (Navy, 1982-2011), when I begin collecting my full Social Security retirement benefit next year (in July 2021)?
Signed: Retired Veteran

Dear Retired Veteran: First, as a fellow veteran, I want to thank you for your 28 years of military service, but I need to clarify what those "special extra earnings" are. That's not an additional amount which will be added to your monthly Social Security benefit as a bonus for serving. Rather it is an additional dollar amount which has already been added to your earnings record for the years you served in the military.

Those receiving active duty military pay have contributed to Social Security since 1957, and that record of your military pay is already on file with Social Security. But a long time ago Congress decided to bump up the recorded earnings of those with earlier military service to make it easier for them to qualify for Social Security, and to possibly provide a slightly higher benefit when the earnings from those years in the military are included in the computation of SS benefits.

To compute your benefit, Social Security uses the 35 highest earning years from your lifetime earnings record (adjusted for inflation). So, if your earnings during the years you were in the military are among the 35 years used to calculate your SS benefit, those military earnings were supplemented with an additional amount to make them up to $1200 per year higher than you were actually paid. And that higher earnings amount possibly means a higher Social Security benefit because it could make your lifetime Average Indexed Monthly Earnings (AIME) higher (a higher AIME translates to a higher benefit amount).

In your case, an extra $100 for every $300 in your actual military pay should have been added to your earnings record for each year you served between 1982 and 2001 (maximum of $1200 for each year).

For service years after 2001, no additional "special credits" are awarded. To verify this, you may wish to obtain a copy of your lifetime Earnings Statement from Social Security and verify that your recorded earnings for 1982 - 2001 are $1200 more than you were actually paid while serving. And if not, you should supply a copy of your DD-214 when applying for your Social Security benefits. You can obtain a copy of your lifetime Earnings Statement online if you have a personal "my Social Security" account at www.ssa.gov/myaccount; otherwise you'll need to request a copy directly from Social Security.

For general information applicable to those who served prior to 1978, computation of their "special extra earnings" were computed a little differently. For those veterans, the maximum annual "special extra earnings" supplement was still $1,200, but the method for computing their extra earnings was to give an extra $300 for each calendar quarter of active duty military service. But in any case, the special extra earnings are an addition to your military pay record on file with Social Security, not an additional dollar amount added to your Social Security benefit.

Stream & Lake Map of New York

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map--known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill.

But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map

Professor Higbee's Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

For a limited time -- get 3 bonuses with each map

BONUS #1

GUIDEBOOK: Pinpoint the best fishing in New York with this valuable guide. Easily locate over 3,000 streams and 1,200 lakes shown on the "Stream & Lake Map." Your map guide will take you to the top 1,123 select water for 19 species of gamefish.

BONUS #2

REPORT: Finding Secret Fishing Spots
47 tips, tactics and tools you can use to find your own secret spot and catch more fish.

REPORT: How Anglers Stalk and Catch Record Fish
The average big fish has evaded capture for over 10 years. Find out which instincts set them apart from smaller fish. Stalking and catching a trophy requires knowledge of their unique habits and those special times when their guard is down. Armed with the information in this new and exclusive 24-page report--you could be in for the fight of your life.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."

—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission to officially implement the reforms.

- Stop receipts will be issued at all traffic stops. This means that a police officer who approaches a stopped vehicle, must immediately tell the resident a reason for the stop and complete a form indicating that reason and the alleged violation observed which is then provided to the driver of the vehicle, onsite.

- Tickets issued for correctable equipment violations or "Fix-It Tickets" issued by the Buffalo Police Department will have a correction period of seven days, instead of the 24 hours provided by New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law, for the motorist to repair the condition and avoid any penalties or fines.

- Buffalo Police Department Management created a new link to the Buffalo Reform Agenda on their and the City's web pages to prominently display the Body Camera, Use of Force and Manual of Procedure policies, as well as the latest version of new forms, and the Police Commissioner's general orders on all current updates to policing in the City of Buffalo. These web updates may be found at: www.buffalony.gov/reformagenda

The Carrousel Museum is hosting a Chiavetta's Chicken BBQ fundraiser on Friday June 26th from 3pm - 7pm. Pre-sale dinners are only $12 each and can be bought on our website. Dinners will be $13 each on the day-of.

EPIC's annual summer program, Storytime at Canalside, kicks off Wednesday, June 24 at 11am. The weekly series will be live-streamed from the Great Lawn on EPIC's Facebook page, as well as their Instagram and YouTube channels. Families can choose to join our weekly livestream from their own homes, or refer back to the videos later on in the week when it's most convenient.

Mayor Brown said, "Today's announcement shows the urgency required to address systemic racism in the City of Buffalo. The time for action is now and my Administration is taking bold steps to ensure that black residents feel safe throughout our City. As I said during my announcement with community activists, clergy, block club leaders, police officers and others, this is the first of many steps that we are taking while also calling on every other sector of our community, from health-care to higher education to media to philanthropy to banking to labor, to do the same."
