West Side Rowing Club Recieves 350K In Grants From RWSF

The West Side Rowing Club (WSRC) announced that it has received a $350,000 grant from the Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Foundation. The grant funds will support the Club's existing outreach efforts to increase participation and diversity in its youth rowing programs over the next three years.

Through its summer learn-to-row camp for kids ages 10-16, WSRC introduces youth to the basics of the sport, while also giving interested participants the opportunity to row in a year-round program. Participants learn how to row on the Black Rock Canal in four or eight person boats in a team-oriented and fun environment. Most learn-to-row participants continue to row through local year-round scholastic or WSRC teams.

WSRC's half-day Summer Crew Camp has been introducing Buffalo and Western New York youth to the sport of rowing for over 20 years.

Starting this summer, the Club will be offering three one-week, full-day camp sessions. The full-day program will provide youngsters with a more immersive learn-to-row and team-building experience.

Shop, Rock, And Stroll

One of my favorite things about North Buffalo is its strong sense of community. When an event takes place on Hertel Avenue, North Buffalo residents ALWAYS show up!

Last week, Daisy's Doghouse teamed up with the Hertel Business Association and The Puppy Playpen to host the annual "Hertel Mutt Strut". On May 29th, the street was lined with red dog bowls used to indicate dog friendly Hertel Business Association members. The purpose of the event each year is to get people outside, to walk their dogs along the avenue, to get some exercise, and to check out local businesses. The turnout was fantastic and after the event I loved checking out all the social media posts from businesses that offered photo ops for both owners and their dogs. The "Hertel Mutt Strut" is

"It's not just a place for Italian-Americans, we want to be able to give opportunities to everybody in Western New York," said Mario Giacobbe, CCI Buffalo's Vice President.

The CCI Courtyard and Community Walkway will provide a welcoming space for social gatherings, and will feature handcrafted Italian sculptures, fountain, benches, herb garden and full-size bocce court. The Paver Project is an opportunity to honor and remember community members, supporters, friends, and family with permanently engraved pavers. To purchase a paver, please visit ccibuffalo.org. The CCI Buffalo's misa North Buffalo tradition that I look forward to every year.

Although we are still in COVID times, another North Buffalo neighborhood event is planned to also resume this year. The beloved "Shop, Rock, and Stroll" is back! Businesses that choose to partake in the event will need our support now more than ever. This three-part series will take place the last Friday of each month during the summer (June 25th, July 30th, August 27th) from 6:30pm- 8:30pm. If you have not been able to join in on the fun in the past, this year is a must. There will be great food, live music, and drinks for all to enjoy while you walk up and down Hertel Avenue and shop at your local favorites. In order for this year to be as successful or even more successful than years past, patrons must follow each businesses COVID-19 safety protocols.

As the sunshine continues and the pandemic winds down, I am hopeful that many more neighborhood events can take place in 2021. It is important that we work together as a community and always stay North Buffalo Strong!

sion is to preserve and promote Italian culture, heritage and language through educational opportunities and community engagement in the Western New York area. The 501c(3) non-profit organization was founded by Dr. Francesco Giacobbe and his late wife, Renata Giacobbe in 2010. For over ten years, the CCI has been sharing and promoting the achievements of education, opportunity, and family values with audiences of many diverse ages, ethnicities, and educational backgrounds.

This Week's Featured Friend: CRIMSON

Hi my name is Crimson and I've been waiting to find my forever human(s). To tell you a little about myself, I'm a handsome orange kitty as you can see from my picture and I'm a little over a year old. I lost my right eye from having a bad infection in it, but please don't let that make you not want to adopt me. You see, I have a lot of love to give and I love to cuddle, snuggle and I love doing zoomies around the house. I also love catnip and treats (I come running when my foster mom shakes the treat jar).

Because of the COVID19 situation, the shelter is closed to the general public. If you would like to meet any of the adoptable dogs, please fill out an application online (if you are not already pre-approved), call the shelter, and leave a message with your name and phone number and the dog you're interested in. Have patience, and they will call you back when they can. From there, a time will be scheduled for you to come and meet the dog. Please be patient, and remember they are very short staffed at the moment. Applications can be found at <https://friendsofcbas.org/adopt>

Ask Rusty – Will My UK Pension Affect My US Social Security?

Dear Rusty: I am 57 years old, was born in the UK, and since 1988 have worked in the US. I have always paid US taxes and Social Security. For the last 20 years, my annual income has typically been well north of $100K. In recent years I have made voluntary payments to the UK National Insurance system looking to claim a retirement benefit from the UK as well as from the US. My concern is that if I claim the UK benefit, this will affect my US Social Security claim. Any insight you can share will be appreciated.
Signed: Worried

Dear Worried: If you have 30 or more years of U.S. employment where you paid into Social Security via payroll taxes on “substantial” earnings, your U.K. pension will not affect your U.S. Social Security benefit when you claim it. Social Security’s definition of “substantial” earnings is different for each year but, generally, if you worked full time in the U.S. and paid into Social Security via payroll taxes since 1988, the so-called Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) won’t affect your US Social Security benefits.

Here is a link to Social Security’s WEP definition which includes a table of “substantial” earnings needed to count for WEP purposes: www.ssa.gov/pubs/EN-05-10045.pdf. The document at this link also describes how WEP works if you have less than 30 years of substantial U.S. earnings. With less than 30 years of substantial earnings on which you paid into Social Security your U.S. benefit will be reduced due to your U.K. pension. The amount of reduction would depend upon how many years of substantial SS-covered earnings you have, but in no case can the reduction be more than 50% of your U.K. pension.

If needed, you can get your Earnings Statement from Social Security, which will show your actual taxable SS earnings for each year to compare against the WEP substantial earnings chart found at the above link. The easiest way to get your Earnings Statement is via your “My Social Security” online account. If you haven’t yet set up your personal online account with SS, you can easily do so at this link: www.ssa.gov/myaccount.

So, the bottom line is this: If you have contributed to U.S. Social Security from “substantial” earnings for at least 30 years, your Social Security benefit will not be affected by your U.K. pension; if you have less than 30 years of contributions to SS, it will. As you may know, you cannot collect your U.S. Social Security until you are at least age 62, but if you claim at that age your benefit amount will be reduced by 30%. You’ll reach your full retirement age at age 67, and that is the point at which you will get 100% of what you’ve earned by working in the U.S. – subject to WEP reduction only if you have less than 30 years of contributions to Social Security.

Help Wanted!

What a strange time we are going through. Everywhere you go you see "help wanted" or "now hiring" signs more than stop signs. Wondering if that is a good thing. I know it is good that there is plenty of work around for all those who are looking to be employed. I have lived through the bad years when trying to find any type of job was impossible.

Born during the late depression era there is no question that work of any kind was hard to find. My dad was able to keep his job and feed his eight children. It was not that easy for others. Not that it was easy for us. Many would spend the day going from place to place and anywhere with the hopes of getting at least one day's wages. There were lots of hungry people who lived day by day. We struggled as even though my dad was working, the wages were far from adequate.

Then World War II came and as we know in those years there was more work than workers. All the manufacturing factories were turned into defense plants. The young men of the country were drafted and taken out of the local workforce. Still people were needed to produce what was necessary to win the war. As we learned, women filled the bill and became the backbone of the assembly lines. "Rosie the Riveter" became famous and with the women of America's contribution, we won the war. Help wanted signs during those years were also a quite common sight.

Then the war ended. Not only did the defense plants lose their biggest customer, the government, but all those thousands of men and women who were overseas returned home. Soon all the jobs that were available again became full and we again had unemployment. Finding employment became difficult for any unskilled person. That did not last that long as we were soon engaged into another conflict, the Korean War. Men and women went overseas, and the factories had defense contracts again. That did not last that long. Three years.

As before, when it was over, the troops returned home, and the government contracts dried up. This was the late 50's. The recovery was not swift. Long lines at the unemployment benefit building and again you would not see a help wanted sign anywhere. I speak from experience as I went through those years desperate for any kind of work. I did anything to help feed my new family. Home building was one of the biggest booming industries at the time as the baby boomers were looking for housing.

If you are hungry, you do almost anything to get a paycheck. They needed carpenters badly so I told them I was a carpenter. I really was not. I lasted a couple of days until they told me to build a staircase going to the basement. That did it. I was exposed as a fraud. Made a few bucks anyway but still had no job. I had to move in with my parents as I had no place to go. Back then to collect unemployment you had to have worked at a place for six months I believe. That was not an option.

So, every day I would seek any kind of work as I had no known skills. One day I was determined to find a job. I was going to go door to door and inquire. My decision was to start on Niagara Street as it was with the most factories within walking distance. Started at the very first place downtown and went into every building with dozens of no answers. Finally at 1200 Niagara, Moore Business Forms, hope. At first it was a definite no, but after talking to the head man, and again being untruthful, (told him I was a bookkeeper) I was hired to a full-time day job. Alleluia brother. Never had to do any bookkeeping as that person returned. They kept me anyway cause I was handsome.

After experiencing such times in my life, I look now at the situation here. Workers are needed to fill the simplest of jobs. Restaurants have cut their hours as they lack staff. Some had to close. This is not like the war years when no able body personnel were available. Plenty of people still on unemployment but yet the need is there for workers. I see McDonalds starting at $15 an hour. A restaurant owner in California said he would pay a dishwasher $20 an hour. It is great that we need workers, and the jobs are there, what we need now is people who want to work.

Do you have a birthday greeting you would like to see here? Birthdays, anniversaries, interesting pictures, short stories or even a 500 word column of interest to your neighbors. Send them to me and I will see what I can do. Nothing political or controversial. Send to Jbortze@aol.com

Questions, Questions And More Questions.

We try to answer them all for you every week during the baseball and softball season in the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League. What was the final score? Which team won? Who had the winning hit? How many strikeouts did the pitcher have?

These are the facts we need to have before you can read these reports. Let's take you to Shoshone Park right away because North Buffalo Baseball and Softball has come back, even better now after this dreaded Covid pandemic.

After the Memorial Day holiday, teams came back to the Park, looking to put together a winning streak or maybe finally, get their first win. Paul Rubino hit a grand slam homerun for the Triple A Yankees enroute to a 13-9 victory over the Athletics. The White Sox defeated the Blue Jays, 10-3. Deion Mason had two big hits for the Mariners as they doubled up the Twins, 16-8 and the Royals snuck by the Orioles, 9-8.

In Double A games, the Marlins picked up their first win last week, a 2-1 victory over the Dodgers. Pete Medakovich and Joe Jack crossed the plate after reaching base with big hits. It was Miami's first victory after four losses. Wolf Schneidermann and Brayden Westfield helped lead the Pirates to a 1-0 victory over the Marlins and the Cardinals won their fifth game in a row, 13-6 to remain undefeated.

In Rookie Girls, the Angels won their third game in a row, a 3-2 victory over the Devils Saturday morning. The Rebels defeated the Ravens, 4-2 and the Diamonds defeated the Comets, 1-0. Two other teams, the Shamrocks and the Stars are all having fun while learning the game of softball.

In Minor Girls, the Reds won just their second game of this young season Monday night, 4-3 on a walk off RBI single by Abby Ware in the bottom of the fifth inning. After falling behind 3-0, the Reds came up with nine hits in the final two innings. Sara Clark and Madison Roman combined to pull off a triple play to end a Yankee threat in the third.

Nick Martin hit a three run homerun over the fence in leftfield in the third inning and teammate Ben Kuwik struck out ten batters over three innings to lead the Reds over the Cardinals Saturday. Dodger outfielder Luis Angel Quinones made an outstanding catch in center field to preserve an 8-4 victory over the Nationals, only their second win of the season. The Cubs won again, remaining undefeated and the Braves topped the Mets.

Mark Thursday, June 24th on your calendar later this month for an All Star Night in Shoshone Park as the best boys and girls playing in Hertel North Park battle it out for bragging rights on six diamonds. Then get set for two more divisions starting soon on Diamond 5 and the Niagara Dermatology sponsored Diamond 2. It's shaping up to be a great season.

Picture Day at Shoshone Park. The Major Girls Division Dodgers, just one of the 64 teams all playing in Hertel North Park. These 12 and under girls are battling the Astros, Cardinals and Rockies in their division.

nue and West Eagle Street. Gates will open 30 minutes prior to the start of each session. The perimeter of the festival will be closed and monitored by security and guests will be given wristbands upon arrival that are specific to each session. Guests may purchase tickets to multiple sessions. All guests will be asked to exit the festival at the end of each session.

Since announcing the Taste had been granted local and state approval in May, event organizers have received updated COVID-19 guidance.
