This Week's Featured Friend: TANNER

Meet Tanner!!! This handsome fella can't wait to find his furever home and take that amazing car ride out of the shelter into his new world. Tanner enjoys car rides, exploring and sniffing, is treat motivated and shows signs of being very housetrained. He's friendly with dogs we've matched him with but is a little rough and could use some practice on polite play. A balanced role model dog would be a good match for him.

Because of the COVID19 situation, the shelter is closed to the general public. If you would like to meet any of the adoptable dogs, please fill out an application online (if you are not already pre-approved), call the shelter, and leave a message with your name and phone number and the dog you're interested in. Have patience, and they will call you back when they can. From there, a time will be scheduled for you to come and meet the dog. Please be patient, and remember they are very short staffed at the moment. Applications can be found at <https://friendsofcbas.org/adopt>

The Grand Opening Of The Buffalo Italian Cultural Center

Saturday, October 9th, 2021, felt like a whirlwind. After over two years of planning, construction, and preparation, the Centro Culturale Italiano di Buffalo finally opened its doors at 2351 Delaware Avenue. This corner, once occupied by the North Park Library, sat vacant for over ten years. It now breathes new life and has been transformed into the heart of North Buffalo's "Little Italy".

To honor such a special addition to North Buffalo, members of CCI, including founder Dr. Francesco Giacobbe and Executive Director John Vecchio, joined together to host a ribbon cutting with community members, elected officials, and stakeholders. I was pleased to participate in the event and say a few words about what this means to Italian- Americans and the North Buffalo community as a whole. Buffalonians from all backgrounds will be able to enjoy the center for generations to come. Visitors will be able to learn about Italian Culture and share stories about their heritage. Language classes will be offered, as well as Italian cooking classes, genealogy research, film series, lectures and CCI Ribbon Cutting Ceremony.

By Bill Snyder

Hail To Our Quarterback!

"Fasten your seatbelts ladies and gentlemen," the legendary Buffalo Bills broadcaster Van Miller used to say before each game. This could be the year the team gets back to the Super Bowl and wins it this time. With the victory over Kansas City Sunday night in Arrowhead Stadium behind them, the Bills can again take one game at a time and prepare for the rest of what's looking to be a magical season led by number 17, the Quarterback, Josh Allen. With his leap over a Chief defender in the fourth quarter to gain a first down, it proved again to all here in Western New York that the "winner" from Wyoming would stop at nothing to lead this team to a Super Bowl berth again beyond an AFC Championship. Next up is Tennessee, a team that was never in existence when the Bills went to four straight Super Bowls 1990-1993. The going may seem easy again with winnable games through mid November but head coach Sean McDermott will still remind us to "trust the process." Brandon Beane has built a roster through the NFL Draft, beginning with a franchise QB in Josh Allen three short years ago in 2018 and the Bills' ride to the top has been the most enjoyable so far. But our quarterback isn't the only one to have worn number 17 on his red, white and blue jersey for the Buffalo Bills. No. In the mid 1970's the team drafted Gary Marangi in 1974 out of Boston College to become the next quarterback and gave him #17 to back up Joe Ferguson. Marangi did get to play during his three years here and made an impression so much so that a large segment of fans wanted him to become the starter, in place of Fergy. I was a junior at Bennett High School at the time and coach Lou Saban had left the team again in 1976, leaving the Bills in the hands of offensive line coach Jim Ringo. One morning in early September of 1977, I was selected by a school newspaper advisor to attend a program much more. Other highlights of the event included students from the Hutch Tech Italian Club marching in a motorcade that marched down Hertel Avenue. It was great to see young kids be involved in such an important day in North Buffalo's history. Italian cuisine was provided by Frankie Primos restaurant and music was played by "The Formula Band" (a popular Italian Band) for all to listen to and enjoy. Overall, the celebration was beyond successful and will be a memory that will last through the years. CCI Buffalo will continue to grow as it already has plans to expand by creating an Italian Heritage Museum. Now that the doors are open, do yourself a favor and take advantage of what this facility has to offer.

held at then Rich Stadium to have a huge press conference with Ringo and some Buffalo Bills players. Many schools were also on hand to be able to sit in the press box of a stadium just five years after it opened in 1972. Bills owner Ralph C. Wilson was in attendance that day and after pastries and coffee, fruit and juice, he welcomed us student journalists to the NFL along with L. Budd Thalman, the Bills public relations director. I was hooked on this profession and consider it one of the best days of my early life. The Bills only won two games in 1976, under Saban and Ringo but I didn't care. O.J. Simpson was "the juice" and whoever was going to hand the ball off, whether Fergy or Marangi, would lead us back into the playoffs. It was a fun time to be growing up a Bills fan. We ran a story in the Bennett Times newspaper and then concentrated on Harvard Cup football with Gerry Berkman and Larry Veronica. The Stadium was behind the School, where all the teams played on Saturday. Memories still so fresh and easily attainable thanks to the Buffalo Public School System and the Buffalo Bills. Christmas In The Country Holiday Artisan Market 2021

A grand Western New York holiday tradition, Christmas in the Country Artisan Market returns to the Fairgrounds in Hamburg after the event was cancelled in 2020 due to the pandemic. Now, celebrating its 36th year, the event has grown from a modest craft show to a holiday market made up of over 400 artisans from across the nation.

Special measures have been taken to ensure patrons enjoy the event safely, including contactless online ticket sales, additional space between booths, recommended mask wearing and enhanced cleaning procedures.

Christmas in the Country features only handcrafted items from the nation's finest small business artisans.

Given the size and scope of Christmas in the Country, it is difficult to see and do everything in one day, so Premier Promotions will offer a complimentary return pass for every day of the event. "Now more than ever, we want to give our patrons the ability to enjoy the market at their own pace," said Kaczynski.

Attendees to Christmas in the Country will find unique and only handcrafted creations including gourmet foods, craft beverages, spa-quality bath and beauty products, trendsetting jewelry, hand-

poured aromatic candles, pottery, original wall art, custom woodwork, home décor and holiday gift items galore. This year, Christmas in the Country opens Thursday and Friday, Nov. 4 and 5, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. each day; Saturday, Nov. 6 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Sunday, Nov. 7 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Discount tickets are available through Wednesday, Nov. 3 at select locations throughout Erie County. About the Basics of Applying for Social Security – Ask Rusty

Dear Rusty: I am planning to apply for Social Security in May of 2022 and would like to understand how to file. I will be taking it when I am 62. Signed: Ready to Retire

Dear Ready to Retire: Congratulations on your upcoming retirement! You should apply for your Social Security benefits about 3 months before you wish benefits to begin (you will tell them the month you want benefits to start when you apply). Since you plan to apply at age 62, be aware that you must be 62 for an entire month to be eligible for benefits – you cannot get benefits for the month you turn 62 (unless you were born on the 1st or 2nd of the month). Rather you become eligible the following month.

Your benefit payment date will be either the 2nd, 3rd, or 4th Wednesday of the month, depending on the day of the month you were born. Born between the 1st and 10th of the month, your payment will be received on the 2nd Wednesday; born between the 11th and 20th of the month, payment will be made on the 3rd Wednesday; born after the 20th of the month, your payment will be received on the 4th Wednesday.

You can apply for benefits over the phone by calling Social Security at 1(800) 772-1213 (or by calling your local office) and requesting an appointment to apply. However, by far, the most efficient way to apply is online at www.ssa.gov/applyforbenefits. Here's a link to a short video about applying online: https://www.ssa.gov/hlp/video/iclaim_r01.htm. To do the online application, you will first need to create your personal "my Social Security" online account, which is easy to do at www.ssa.gov/myaccount. When you have that online account set up, you will see your estimated benefit amounts at several ages. You'll see that if you claim at age 62, your benefit will be 30% less than it would be at your full retirement age (FRA) of 67 (a permanent reduction), and you'll also see that your benefit at age 70 would be about 75% more than your benefit at age 62.

Please also be aware that if you claim before your full retirement age and you continue to work, Social Security has a limit for how much you can earn before they take away some of your benefits. The 2022 earnings limit is not yet known, but it will be something a bit more than the 2021 limit of $18,960. If you exceed the annual limit, Social Security will take back benefits equal to $1 for every $2 you are over the limit (half of what you exceed the limit by). The earnings limit goes up by over 2.5 times in the year you reach your full retirement age and goes away entirely once FRA is attained.

Finally, your Social Security benefits may be subject to income tax if your combined income from all sources is high enough. The thresholds depend on your IRS filing status – if you file as "married/jointly" and your combined income (yours and your husband's) is more than $32,000, then 50% of your SS benefits for the tax year becomes part of your taxable income. If your combined income as a married couple is more than $44,000, then up to 85% of your SS benefits will be taxable. The thresholds are less if you file your taxes as a single – in that case, income over $25,000 means 50% of your SS benefits are taxable, and income over $34,000 means up to 85% of your benefits will be taxed at whatever your normal IRS tax rate is.

Centro Cultural Italiano (Italian Culture Center)

CCI's Co-Founder, Dr. Frank Giacobbe and New Executive Director, John Vecchio attend the Cultural Center's Grand Opening on October 9th, 2021.

Attended the ribbon cutting of the CCI (Centro Cultural Italiano) on Saturday. What an amazing event! Right here in North Buffalo on the corner of Delaware and Hertel. That decides it, we are now officially considered the Little Italy of Buffalo. It is now the Italian American community and should be recognized as such.

My belief is that it all started when the Italian Festival moved from Connecticut street on the West Side to Hertel Avenue in North Buffalo. I happen to be a witness to the negotiations back in 1988 when the leaders of the event were discussing the move. The deciding factors were the carnival and food truck owners. Hertel offered a wider street with more sidewalks. It was also evident that the neighborhoods were changing, and thousands of Italian Americans were now residents of North Buffalo. There were other reasons, but we know the move happened. In the beginning the festival was greeted with open arms by most merchants and residents.

As the years passed the event became one of the largest Italian Festivals in the country. With it came the problems. Each year the Italian Festival committee would try to address the problems of the previous year. A momentous task to say the least as the festival became bigger and bigger. The committee tried to keep it with an ethnic theme. Italian food and culture! Eventually the carnival people were downsized, and it became more of an ITALIAN festival. The food, the displays, the ethnic booths and even dress. It still had its problems as it was in a residential neighborhood. The homeowners' won out and the festival moved to downtown. It did leave a lingering effect, however. North Buffalo was now the Italian American community of Buffalo. Hertel Avenue was declared "Little Italy."

The festival is gone from here but not the memories of how great it was.

It is gone from the neighborhood, but it has left its mark. The festival was a place for all the old westiders to meet and reminisce about the good old times. Fortunately, there were people who did not want to let that go. They wanted the Italian American heritage to live on here and decided to do something about it. Negotiations began for the initiation of an Italian Culture Center. A place for goombahs and piezon's to meet and talk about their heritage. The Italian festival in a building.

The old North Park library on the corner of Delaware and Hertel was no longer in use and empty. The original motivating force, and there are dozens that contributed, was Dr. Francesco Giacobbe. He produced a plan to renovate the old Library into an Italian heritage center. He solicited all Italian American politicians and businesspeople to not only get the project underway, but make it happen. And happen it did. We now have an Italian American culture center right here in North Buffalo. The ribbon cutting was attended by the who's who of Italian descent in Buffalo. This structure is a tribute to the hard work and dedication of the many volunteers who contributed. The building is beautiful and well done. There are still projects in the works.

The walkway leading into the front has cobblestone or brick paths. These bricks can be purchased by anyone, with a name chosen by the buyer engraved on it. This is a fundraiser to help defray the cost of maintenance. The facility also has a new restaurant and coffee shop. Why not stop by and visit, it is right in the neighborhood.

Do you have a birthday greeting you would like to see here? Birthdays, anniversaries, interesting pictures, short stories or even a 500 word column of interest to your neighbors. Send them to me and I will see what I can do. Nothing political or controversial. Send to Jbortze@aol.com

Art Moves Me, Therapeutic Dance and Mindful Movement Program

Art Moves Me represents a prime example of the exceptional programs the Community Grants fund. Competition to receive funding is significant due to the high-quality program standards required for grant submission. The effect these programs have on the community is a huge part of their benefit. The physical improvement, the social connections, and the spreading of awareness all play into the benefits derived from the programs and the importance of the Community Grants.

Cynthia Pegado, Co-director of Art Moves Me, developed this essential program in conjunction with the Parkinson's Foundation and the Burchfield Penney Art Center in 2017. The program choreographs movement to music, not in prescribed dance steps (i.e., waltz, fox trot, etc.), but in movements that help with balance, coordination, range of motion and more. It offers creative engagement with artworks through guided awareness of kinesthetic & proprioceptive senses and contemplative dance. These sustainable practices help to enhance emotional, psychological and social well-being. Mental health wellness is a core focus.

This free program begins with guided gallery visit, interactive discussion,

Centering, Breathwork Guided dance improvisation, Movement meditation, and concluding in Reflection. Live music accompaniment. The sessions run on Thursdays: October 7, 21, 28, November 4, 11, 18, December 9, 16, 2021, 12:00pm at the Burchfield Penney Art Center, 1300 Elmwood Avenue, Buffalo, NY. Participants may attend individual dates or full series Pre-registration
