Memorial Day 2022

The historic Memorial Day is celebrated annually in the United States on the last Monday of May. This year, the holiday lands on Monday, May 30th, 2022.

Memorial Day is now observed as of 1971, on the last Monday of May. It honors the member every year. It honors those of the U.S. military who died in American wars. One of the biggest Memorial Day traditions is for the president or vice president to give a speech. Another is for the president or vice president to lay a wreath on soldiers' graves in the largest U.S. military burial ground, Arlington National Cemetery, in Virginia.

The history of Memorial Day goes back more than a century and a half in our countries' history.

Three years after the Civil War ended, on May 5, 1868, the head of an organization of Union veterans — the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) — established Decoration Day as a time for the nation to decorate the graves of the war dead with flowers. Maj. Gen. John A. Logan declared it should be May 30. It is believed the date was chosen because flowers would be in bloom all over the country.

The first large observance was held that year at Arlington National Cemetery, across the Potomac River from Washington, D.C. The ceremonies centered around the mourning-draped veranda of the Arlington mansion, once the home of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Various Washington officials, including Gen. and Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, presided over the ceremonies.

In 1966, Congress and President Lyndon Johnson declared Waterloo, N.Y., the "birthplace" of Memorial Day. There, a ceremony on May 5, 1866, honored local veterans who had fought in the Civil War. Businesses closed and residents flew Continued on page two.

This Week's Featured Friend: WILLOW

Willow is 5 years old and super sweet with all humans. She loves to snuggle and even enjoys belly rubs! Willow needs to be the only cat in the home. Always! She's unfazed by smaller dogs, maybe dogs in general. She has some type of allergy so may need to be monitored a little bit. A stress free life with lots of love will keep her allergic reactions at bay. She is on hypoallergenic food that can be purchased over the counter.

If you would like to meet any of the adoptable dogs, please fill out an application online (if you are not already pre-approved), call the shelter, and leave a message with your name and phone number and the dog you're interested in. Have patience, and they will call you back when they can. From there, a time will be scheduled for you to come and meet the dog. Please be patient, and remember they are very short staffed at the moment. Applications can be found at <https://friendsofcbas.org/adopt>

Continued from page one. flags at half-staff. Supporters of Waterloo's claim say earlier observances in other places were either informal, not community-wide or one-time events. By the end of the 19th century, Memorial Day ceremonies were being held on May 30 throughout the nation. State legislatures passed proclamations designating the day, the Army and Navy opted regulations for proper observance at their facilities. It was not until after World War I, however, that the day was expanded to honor those who have died in all American wars. In 1971, Memorial Day was declared a national holiday by an act of Congress, though it is still often called Decoration Day. It was then also placed on the last Monday in May, as were some other federal holidays.

To ensure the sacrifices of America's fallen heroes are never forgotten, in December 2000, the U.S. Congress passed and President Bill Clinton signed into law "The National Moment of Remembrance Act," P.L. 106-579, creating the White House Commission on the National Moment of Remembrance. The commission's charter is to "encourage the people of the United States to give something back to their country, which provides them so much freedom and opportunity" by encouraging and coordinating commemorations in the United States of Memorial Day and the National Moment of Remembrance. The National Moment of Remembrance encourages all Americans to pause whenever they are at 3 p.m. local time on Memorial Day for a minute of silence to remember and honor those who have died in service to the nation. As Moment of Remembrance founder Carmella LaSpade once stated: "It's a way we can all help put the memorial back in Memorial Day."

Ask Rusty – Must I Pay Income Tax on Social Security Benefits?

Dear Rusty: I do not recall the rules on my income tax obligation for Social Security benefits. Can you please explain these rules to me? Signed: Senior Taxpayer er: I'll be happy to review the rules about income tax on Social Security benefits for you. If your combined income from all sources is low enough, your Social Security benefits aren't subject to being taxed by the IRS. But some of your Social Security benefits will become taxable if your combined income from all sources exceeds certain thresholds, and the thresholds are dependent on your tax filing status (single or married).

If you file your income tax as "married-filing jointly" and your combined income from all sources (both taxable and non-taxable income) is less than $32,000, then your Social Security benefits aren't taxable. But if your combined income as a married couple is between $32,001 and $44,000, then half of the SS benefits you received during the tax year becomes part of your taxable income. And if your combined income as a married couple exceeds $44,000 then up to 85% of the SS benefits you received during the tax year becomes part of your taxable income. Those SS benefits will simply be included as part of your taxable income and taxed at whatever your normal IRS tax rate is.

If you file your income tax as a "single" the thresholds at which Social Security benefits become taxable are different. Single filers with a combined income of $25,000 or less pay no income tax on their benefits. But single filers with combined income between $25,001 and $34,000 will have half of their SS benefits received during the tax year become taxable, and single filers whose combined income exceeds $34,000 will see up to 85% of their Social Security benefits become taxable.

These single filer thresholds apply also to those filing as Single Head of Household or Qualifying Widow(er), and to those filing as "married-filing separately" if they lived apart for the entire tax year. But the threshold is zero dollars for married couples who file separately but lived together at any time during the tax year.

To clarify what "combined income" is – the IRS uses something called your Modified Adjusted Gross Income, or "MAGI," to determine if your Social Security benefits should be taxed. Your MAGI is your normal Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) from your tax return, plus any non-taxable income you may have had, plus 50% of the Social Security benefits you received during the tax year. If your MAGI is over the thresholds described above, a portion of the SS benefits you received during the tax year will be included in your taxable income. If it is not, you pay no income tax on your benefits.

To be sure you're aware, when you file as "married/jointly" income from both partners counts when determining your MAGI for income tax purposes.

Time Will Tell.

Bill Murray and Andie MacDowell in the 1993 surreal comedy, Groundhog Day.

What is "time"? The definition is, "the measured or measurable period during which an action, process, or condition exists or continues: DURATION"

b: a nonspatial continuum that is measured in terms of events which succeed one another from past through present to future

We live in a measurable period of time. Our lifetime. Starts with the day we are born and ends the day we die. It is measured in seconds, minutes, days, weeks, months, and years. There is the potential ticking of the clock. Non-stop and continuous. Sometimes relentless and goes too fast, other times when we are waiting for something we want, too slow. There is no control as far as time is concerned. It is at one speed, and we must live by it, fast or slow. Time is surely one of the things we cannot explain and just live with.

When we pass, time ends. There is no longer a period to measure. There is no longer any period. It is over. You are not gone for a year or a hundred years or a thousand. You do not return after a certain period. Time is erased and you are in the forever. We are all going to go there. There is an absence of "time." Because we live in a world controlled by "time" that is hard for us to understand. No clock ticking. No days or months passing. How can that be?

As we live our lifetime period, everything we do is based on our "future." The things we want to do, must do, or need to accomplish before the final day. I would think we plan out futures on things we want to do, want to accomplish. Having to do is just the way it is. The path to happiness is lined with the obstacles of everyday life. It just takes time to get there. There we go again with the time thing.

Unfortunately, we must live with the time. There is no way to make time stand still. I wonder if we could if we would really want to. Like the movie "Groundhog Day." He lives the same day repeatedly till it got monotonous. It would not be pleasant as much as you might enjoy a certain period, for it to continue. It becomes a nice memory as I doubt after a couple of "times" you would want it to be repeated forever. So, the clock continues to click the seconds, minutes, and years away. You are born, you live your life the best you could, spend the "time" you have on this earth and then go into that timeless abyss.

Time is mentioned in so many songs.

1. "Till the End of Time", "Anytime", "One Moment in Time" by Whitney Houston,
2. "Time After Time" by Cyndi Lauper,
3. "Love me Two Times" by The Doors,
4. "Time is on my Side" by The Rolling Stones,
5. "Does Anybody Really Know What Time it is?" by Chicago,
6. "Time of my Life" by David Cook

How many can you add?

Kearns Announces Food Drive Benefit

Erie County Clerk Michael P. Kearns announced beginning May 17th, his office, along with the Auto Bureau branches, will be collecting non-perishable food items in an effort to assist the families and community affected by the senseless tragedy that took place in Buffalo.

"I ask anyone who is coming into one of our Auto Bureau branches or to the Clerk's office to consider bringing a non-perishable food item(s) or paper products with them to support the many households who will have a difficult time getting to their local grocery store due to the senseless tragedy that took place this past weekend," stated Kearns. "When any of our neighbors need help, this community shows up, and

SPCA Offers Free Adoptions To Military Members For Vets & Pets

To thank the men and women of the armed services this Memorial Day, the SPCA Serving Erie County offers "Vets & Pets," waiving adoption fees on most animals for individuals and immediate families of individuals on active duty, reserves, and honorable discharge, along with service-disabled veterans and those retired from military service. This program, a longtime SPCA tradition, is proudly brought to our community by philanthropist and SPCA supporter Nancy Gacioch of Buffalo!

Monday, May 23 and runs through Monday, May 30* at the SPCA's 300 Harlem Rd., West Seneca shelter and all SPCA off-site adoption locations.

Military ID or DD214 will need to be presented. If an individual is currently serving outside of New York State, that individual's spouse can adopt during Vets & Pets if a military spouse identification card is presented. Adopters can apply the Vets & Pets waived adoption fee promotion toward a total of two animals.

Photos of all adoptable animals, a list of off-site adoption locations, and more information can be found at YourSPCA.org/VetsandPetsMay2022.

Please contact SPCA Adoptions Supervisor Krissi Miranda with any questions: (716) 875-7360, ext. 233.

*Please note: The SPCA's West Seneca shelter is closed on Sunday and Monday, May 29 and 30, but many of the SPCA's off-site adoption locations are open those two days!

See a list of our off-site locations and photos of the animals available here. To be pre-approved to adopt an off-site pet, please call the SPCA's Offsite Adoptions Department at (716) 875-7360, ext. 235, or visit the 300 Harlem Rd., West Seneca shelter Monday - Saturday, 11 a.m. - 4 p.m.
