Buffalo's Famous Summer Highlights

This year the lineup of summer happenings and sights in the city beckons with its food, art, music and the idiosyncratic. As Lake Erie breezes make the Queen City temperate and cool, a cool of another kind awaits: From waterfront promenades to a shoreline concert space with sunset views, a culture of cutting-edge design, an art museum with a world-renowned modern and contemporary art collection to a global food scene with a James Beard finalist chef who melds the cooking of his Indian heritage with Texas barbecue. The Erie Canal is celebrating its 200-year anniversary by retelling its history at a canal boat replica and floating museum built by volunteers.

The $195 million reinvention of the expanded, renamed Buffalo AKG Art Museum. A world-class collection of modern and contemporary art -- without the crowds. Explore the 50,000 square foot addition that emerges from the lawn like an ice floe made of glass. The riveting chronicle of art from the past century to now is, as the Wall Street Journal wrote, "a required stop for cultural travelers."

Sleep in at a National Historic Landmark by the great American architect H.H. Richardson: The Richardson Hotel is an au courant experience with modern décor and the soaring windows of the 1870s asylum. Dine on Italian fare and oysters in its serenely elegant Cucina bar and restaurant. Get the full story at the ground floor Lipsey Architecture Center. Tour the Richardson Campus designed by Frederick Law Olmsted.

Guided walks await photographers, gardeners, history buffs and the curious.

Music moves us. Jazz, rock, classical, hip-hop venues and festivals grow here. This summer, Terminal B, a waterfront warehouse repurposed into a concert venue, debuts with alt rock's Counting Crows and soul, funk and jazz by Lake Street Dive. Hear more at Buffalo RiverWorks, a grain-siloed waterfront entertainment center. In the downtown Cobblestone District, tribute bands transport at Buffalo Iron Works' brick factory space. Nationally touring Americana folk and country players take the Sportsmens tavern stage in the Black Rock neighborhood. Let summer end at the Music is Art festival, founded two decades ago by Goo Goo Dolls bassist Robby Takac, with a renewed

Spillman And The Three Jacks!

The 2024 winning 8U Boys North Buffalo Blaze team after sweeping North Tonawanda in two games Saturday in Shoshone Park.

A lot of great Baseball and Softball games being played on the new Don Morris Fields in Shoshone Park every night during the week and on Saturdays. Let's take you right out there and catch you up to a great season.

Congratulations are in order for the 8U North Buffalo Blaze Babe Ruth Team for winning the Championship this past weekend in Shoshone Park against the North Tonawanda Babe Ruth Americans in two games played Saturday in front of adoring fans. This was their fifth consecutive win in as many years, going back to before the Pandemic.

James Spillman went seven for eight and scored six runs over two games to lead North Buffalo at the plate. Three other teammates, all with the first name of Jack, each had four hits on the day and led an offense that put countless Blaze runners on the basepaths, leading to over 20 runs in each game. The players are: Jack O'Brien, Jack Ramsey and Jack Perry.

"It was a great, all around team effort by the green and gold," said manager Jim Daley afterward. As the League's Travel Director for Boys in Shoshone Park, he's seen a lot of talented young players come through the Park way before the Pandemic. "All eleven players contributed and also included pitchers Perry, Gus O'Brien and Luke Nikiel. Catchers Jack Ramsey and Jack O'Brien (a brother) were catching behind the plate. Other players included Michael Anderson III, Jayce Ernest-Rosa, Crawford Gardner, James Liddell, Tony Morrison and Christopher Nance.

"I'd like to thank my assistant coaches, Greg Nikiel, Mike Anderson and Kevin O'Brien for the job they did helping me. Except for the Pandemic year in 2020, this fifth one is sweet."

It's been sweet for all of North Buffalo so far this season. There have been very few rain out games on the schedule so teams are getting ready for the playoffs. There's not many games left in the regular season for most Divisions and some teams have clinched first place already. The Angels in the Rookie Girls Division celebrated their undefeated regular season last Saturday win over the Rebels. Later that day, the Double AA Tigers clinched their Division with nine wins in a row against three other teams. The Boys aren't left out on the celebrations as the Double AA Braves clinched first place after 11 wins on their season and all three are waiting on the Playoffs.

On Wednesday, June 12th and Thursday the 13th, the League took a break from the games and formed All-Star games for both the Boys and Girls. The Girls met on Wednesday and a team of Shamrocks, Wolfpack, Stars and Devils defeated a team of Shamrocks, Diamonds, Rebels and Ravens in a 10-4 final. The Triple AAA score was just as exciting 16-11, the Bulldogs, Volunteers and Purple Eagles over the Crimson Tide, Gators and Yellow Jackets.

The next night, the Cubs, Giants, Mets and Reds defeated the Phillies, Padres, Cards, Dodgers and Braves, 10-5 in the Major Division and the Double AA Boys of Phillies, Braves, Pirates and Cards defeated the Brewers, Mets and Dodgers, 5-4. Everyone is an All-Star in Shoshone Park.

Genevieve Musialowski had three big hits for the Ravens in a 2-0 win over the Stars in Rookie Girls. Mary Pope hit a three run double in the bottom of the sixth to tie their game with the Huskies at 10-10. She later crossed the plate in an 11-10 come from behind victory. Morgan DeLaPlante made a diving catch in center field in the bottom of the fourth inning for the Ducks.

Paul Rubino and Joe Constantine both blasted two run homeruns over the fence on the Major Diamond this past Saturday in a 12U Boys Travel Game against the Batavia Clippers, 15-7. Rubino's blast drove in Constantine while Constantine brought in Jayden Horan.

The team also includes twin brother Carter Horan, Eamon Smith, Bengi Hadden, Burke Ganci, Vincent Majchazak, Greyson Gordon, Linus Ward and J.R. Hornung.

Ask Rusty – Why Is There A Social Security Earnings Limit?

Dear Rusty: I try to read your article in the Carmichael Times each week and appreciate the information you provide. I am 62 and considering my retirement options and when I should do that to get the most benefit. I understand my full retirement age is 67, but what I don't understand, and I hope you can answer, is why there is such a thing as the Social Security earnings limit? I know that if I was to retire before 67, my benefits would be reduced. But since I have been paying into SS for 45+ years, and that money is technically money I have earned, why does SS care if I make more than the earnings limit? It doesn't affect them or my benefits. Can you tell me about the reasoning behind the earnings limit? I will, for many years after "retiring," continue working in my field.

Thank you in advance for your service as a Social Security Advisor.

Signed: Working American

Dear Working American: This is a great question and, as a point of interest, our parent company, the Association of Mature American Citizens (AMAC), advocates doing away with Social Security's earnings test which affects those collecting benefits before reaching their SS full retirement age (FRA). In AMAC's view, it discourages people from working and, thus, paying Social Security taxes on their earnings. It is, after all, SS taxes from the earnings of working Americans which largely pays for the benefits provided to Social Security beneficiaries. Eliminating the restriction would tend to improve Social Security revenue and help ease Social Security's current financial stress.

The reasoning behind the earnings test? Well, when Social Security was first enacted in the 1930s, the intent was that Social Security was for retired workers, meant to keep them from poverty in old age. The logic back then was that if a person worked they didn't need Social Security to sustain them, so those who worked could not collect Social Security at all. The current rule, after many adjustments over the years, says that annual earnings for those who collect early SS benefits are limited. If each year's earnings limit ($22,320 for 2024) is exceeded, Social Security will take away $1 in benefits for every $2 over the limit (FYI, the penalty is less severe in the year FRA is attained).

Historical accounts suggest that the reasoning behind the wording in the original Social Security Act – that "No person shall receive such old-age annuity unless . . . he is not employed by another in a gainful occupation" – was quite controversial, except for the fundamental thought that if someone worked they didn't need Social Security. Over the ensuing decades the rule has been softened to provide that only those who collect benefits before their full retirement age (FRA) would have a portion of their SS benefits offset by their work earnings. In any case, the earnings test, in its mitigated form, still persists today. FYI, H.R. 5193 – The Senior Citizens Freedom to Work Act was recently introduced in Congress proposing to repeal the SS earnings test but has not advanced in the legislative process since introduced in August 2023.

In any case, under current rules, if you continue working after your FRA, the earnings test will not apply to you. And, if you lose any benefits before your FRA due to the earnings test, when you reach your FRA you'll get time credit for any months that benefits were withheld, resulting in a somewhat higher monthly payment after your full retirement age.

One final point: if you continue to work after starting your Social Security benefits and your recent earnings are higher than any of those in the inflation-adjusted 35 years used to originally calculate your benefit, your entitlement will be recalculated to give you credit for those higher recent earnings.

Thank you for submitting your question to our Social Security Advisor department. Be sure to share our link with your family and friends.

International cuisines and culinary incubators are part of Buffalo's delicious food story, along with the James Beard finalist chef behind Southern Junction Barbecue's fusion of Texas and Indian cuisines. Taste the delights of Egypt, West Africa, Myanmar, the Philippines, Sudan, Thailand and Ethiopia at the West Side Bazaar, within a Prohibition-era hootch factory, and the Downtown Bazaar, in the heart of the Theatre District. Classic eateries showcase Italian and Sicilian fare that goes back generations. Now Bangladeshi kebabs, Yemeni roast lamb, Georgian coffee and Syrian pastries join the lineup.

Our shoreline is dotted with elevating experiences. See the Seneca Chief, a volunteer-built recreation of the first boat to make its way down the Erie Canal. This floating museum transports visitors to the historic beginnings of the waterway that led to a westward expansion. Silo City, a once abandoned 27-acre stretch of waterfront and grain elevators, has emerged as an urban oasis with residences underway in a century-old warehouse. Music, poetry and cocktails are at home here. Take a sip at Duende tavern and listen to jazz and Americana folk indoors and out. On Saturdays, Mimosas and Minuets is an afternoon breakfast sandwich brunch with string ensembles playing. Poetry readings have uncanny resonance in the silos with the Just Buffalo Literary Center. As a nature trail winds amidst sculptural installations, see how new urban design evolves organically.

The summer theater scene is unique and diverting. Avant-garde happenings by Torn Space Theater connect art, fashion, sound and even a communal dinner table at Silo City and in a redesigned theater connected to a century-old Polish club still serving bottles of cold Zyweic beer. Follow Frederick Law Olmsted's parkways for a picnic and hillside seat at one of the longest running summer park producers of the Bard's work: The Winter's Tale and The Comedy of Errors unfolds at Shakespeare in Delaware Park, now in its 49th year.

This city's house gardens open to the public in summer. The Buffalo Garden Walk with its route through Victorian neighborhoods and inspiringly creative plantings and blooms celebrates its 30th anniversary. Find more garden walks and open garden days June 30 through July 28.

Explore Frank Lloyd Wright's design genius at two house museums. The architect called the Martin House, in the leafy Parkside neighborhood, "a perfect composition." Its complement, the Graycliff summer estate and gardens, perches over Lake Erie.

Hear jazz at the Colored Musicians Club, one of the nation's only continuously operating Black musicians' union headquarters, where members like Aretha Franklin and Miles Davis hung out and played. The reopening club and expanded museum will tell the story and lend a seat for a beer at the wooden bar where music, and history, has been made for a near century. It's in the African American Heritage Corridor with roots in the Underground Railroad and the NAACP.

The new, in-the-works Ralph Wilson Park is a $110 million citizen redesign of 100 acres along the water, made from soil left from the Erie Canal dig. It gets a spotlight this fall when a wide new pedestrian bridge gets placed over a highway. More public coastline stretches downtown at the Buffalo River. Where the Erie Canal once ended, there are the parks Outer Harbor and Canalside. Explore the children's museum. Ride a restored carousel made here a century ago. Kayak, sail, paddleboard in smooth, sheltered waterways. Our waterfront aligns for killer sunset views. Come. Take in a few.
