Charles E. Burchfield (1893-1967), Retreat of Winter, 1950-64; watercolor on paper, 40 x 60 inches; Burchfield Penney Art Center, Purchase, 2024

preserving and showcasing the legacy of Charles E. Burchfield and the art and artists of Buffalo, New York, and the surrounding region.

Burchfield Scholar Nancy Weekly describes the painting as "a quintessential work in a series that imaginatively depicts the joyful transition of seasons from Winter to Spring." Retreat of Winter's sister paintings, The Coming of Spring (1917-43) and Two Ravines (1934-43), can be found in the collections of The Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Hunter Museum of American Art, Continued on page five.

Tigers Win Championship!

Tigers (Yellow): Summer Hornung, Mia Pizzuto, Laylah Balsano, Presley Chebat, Nora Ryan, Ainsley Roehl, Lily Frechette, Haddie Pyne, Flo Schult, Jenny Clark, Ellie Latham. Razorbacks (Red): Sadie Marcus, Sylvie Fyda, Penelope Barrett, Taylor Lockwood, Demi Martin, Addison Brace, Clara Siller, Parker Drake, Maggie Martin, Persephone Knop.

The eight year old Double AA Tigers in the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League are the first team to win a Championship in the House Divisions this year. They shut out the Razorbacks, 12-0 last Tuesday, June 23 on Diamond #4 in front of a huge throng of their fans.

They were led by nearly a dozen, happy girls who rattled off nine straight wins in a row since Opening Day and held first place in the four team Division throughout the season.

Against teams like the Bears, Bonnies and Razorbacks, the team was led by Summer Hornung, Mia Pizzuto, Laylah Balsano, Presley Chebat and Nora Ryan. These five girls brought their bats with them to the Park and made contact, spreading that yellow softball all around the diamonds.

"These girls all played well for us, all season," said head coach Matt Ryan. afterward. "Not only did they hit the ball well, but the play in the infield was great with few mistakes. Their team defense kept the opposing teams off of the basepaths."

Late last month, the Tigers ended the regular

That gave the team the first cede in the Play-offs against the Razorbacks. The Second Place Bears met the Bonnies in the first round July 11-13 where the winners would advance.

Surprisingly, the Razorbacks won the first game, sending the Tigers into the losers bracket and forcing the yellow colored Tigers into a tougher battle. It took a total team effort to pull off a victory in the play-offs. Other girls on the Tigers included Ainsley Roehl, a tremendous Tiger as well as Lily Frechette. Haddie Pyne, Flo Schult, Jenny Clark and Ellie Latham. All girls received a Championship Trophy afterwards and posed for pictures.

"This was truly a great season for all of us," said Ryan. "These girls all played hard this season. I would like to thank my assistant coaches for helping and most importantly, would like to thank the parents for their support."

Despite the loss, the Razorbacks hung in there and fought til the bitter end. Head coach Eric Marcus led the team to a great season. All four teams proved that on any given night, they could surprise and pull an upset victory.

season with ten wins, just one loss and a 10-10 tie with the Bears.

Does Congress Pay Into Social Security? – Ask Rusty

Dear Rusty: I've been told that members of Congress do not have Social Security deducted from their pay; Additionally, that their retirement dollars come from the Social Security Administration purse even if they only serve as a member of Congress for a short number of terms. Also, if this is true, are there other individuals that enjoy these advantages?

Thank you in advance for your service as a Social Security Advisor.

Signed: Concerned Senior

Dear Concerned Senior: I'm afraid this is one of those "urban legend" kind of rumors that just seems to keep popping up, especially when the issues surrounding Social Security's financial problems come up. In addition to being untrue, it often is used to display the public's animosity toward elected officials and the feeling that Congress—and other elected officials—are above the fray, so to speak, and therefore not affected by the implications of Social Security's looming insolvency problem.

Here's the reality. Since January 1, 1984, all members of Congress, the President and Vice President, Federal judges, and most political appointees, are covered under the Social Security program. The rumor that these elected officials do not pay Social Security tax most likely is attributable to the fact that from 1920 to 1983, they were participants in the Civil Service Retirement System—CSRS—the federal retirement plan federal workers used even before the Social Security Act was passed. CSRS provided a pension for federal employees, so they were exempted from contributing to or collecting from the new Social Security program.

In other words, the rumor that Congress didn't pay into Social Security was actually true prior to 1984, but today it is a misstatement of fact. And the federal employee retirement plans (both the prior CSRS plan and the current FERS plan) are totally independent of Social Security and do not negatively affect program solvency.

Burchfield Acquires "Retreat of Winter"

Continued from page one. respectively. "All three contain early paintings that Burchfield expanded and remastered many years later," Ms. Weekly continued, "making each vibrantly expressive. Retreat of Winter is the most magical and transcendent in its approach."

Burchfield returned on many occasions over his lifetime to sketch ravines near his hometown of Salem, Ohio, and in Western New York, where he spent his adulthood. In a February 14, 1962 journal entry he noted, "The perennial fascination of the 'convention' of a 'black hollow' (which came to me in 1917, and has haunted me ever since)—symbolizing the dark mystery of a North Woods, where winter lurks in the V of deep sunless ravines."

Burchfield's works of this scale and significance rarely become available at auction. Thanks to the Burchfield Penney board and staff's close monitoring of the art market, the Art Center's team was able to quickly mobilize to acquire this treasure for our community to enjoy. The Center continues to raise funds to support the acquisition of artworks that reflect the arts of our region. Learn more about how you can get involved and support this work at burchfield-penney.org/support.

The 40 x 60-inch painting arrived at the Art Center in late June, framed and crated for safe travel. The Burchfield Penney team quickly set about reframing the work with state-of-the-art museum glass (for a glare-free viewing experience) and a custom frame faithful to the artist's own hand-constructed framing style.

All are welcome to experience this special painting at the public unveiling on M&T Second Friday, August 9, 2024, from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m. Retreat of Winter will be on view alongside a selection of Burchfield's related sketches and journal entries through October 20, 2024. August M&T Second Friday festivities will also feature live music and hands-on creative activities led by Burchfield Visionaries members.

For more information about the Burchfield Penney Art Center and its upcoming exhibitions, events, and programs, please visit burchfield-penney.org.

This Week's Featured Friend: CHALUPA

OUR SHELTER IS OVERFLOWING WITH DOGS!

Chalupa here! I am a young boy (approximately 7 months), a mixed breed for sure, and I have so much zest for life, it will make you smile to see how much I embrace the world. Because I am still a young lad, and not much training prior to the shelter, I have so much to learn. One thing I am really good at already is "sit" and I take treats very nicely. I love to run, do zoomies, play with toys and enjoy getting some love and pets with the peeps I am hanging out with. Sticks are a favorite of mine. I often like to carry one with me and will take a break to chill and gnaw on one if given the chance.

If you would like to meet any of the adoptable dogs, please fill out an application online (if you are not already pre-approved), call the shelter, and leave a message with your name and phone number and the dog you're interested in. Have patience, and they will call you back when they can. From there, a time will be scheduled for you to come and meet the dog. Please be patient, and remember they are very short staffed at the moment. Applications can be found at <https://friendsofcbas.org/adopt>
