Breast Cancer Awareness Month

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month and October 13th is Metastatic Breast Cancer Awareness Day.

Breast Cancer Awareness Month, held in October every year, aims to promote screening and prevention of the disease, which affects one in eight women in the United States every year and 2.3 million women worldwide. Known best for its pink theme color, the month features a number of campaigns and programs — conducted by groups ranging from breast cancer advocacy organizations to local community organizations to major retailers — aimed at: supporting people diagnosed with breast cancer, including metastatic breast cancer educating people about breast cancer risk factors stressing the importance of regular screening, starting at age 40 or an age that's appropriate for your personal breast cancer risk fundraising for breast cancer research.

This information is provided by Breastcancer.org. October 13 is nationally recognized in the United States as Metastatic Breast Cancer Awareness Day. About 30% of early-stage breast cancers eventually metastasize (spread to parts of the body away from the breast), and the day is intended to drive awareness of the need for more research about metastatic disease.

22nd Annual Female Musicians Fighting Breast Cancer Benefit

The 22nd Annual Female Musicians Fighting Breast Cancer Benefit is once again set to raise awareness and funds for Roswell Park's 11 Day Power Play Resource Center, the go-to support and information center on the grounds of Roswell Park Comprehensive Cancer Center. The event will occur on Sunday October 19th, 2025 at the recently expanded Sportsmen's Tavern at 326 Amherst St., Buffalo, N.Y. Doors will open at 1:00 p.m. with four outstanding musical groups who have generously donated their time and talent to perform.

It's been 22 years since Ida Goeckel, a local female bass player, and two time breast cancer survivor, founded and organized the first annual Female Musicians Fighting Breast Cancer Benefit in 2003. The Roswell Comprehensive Cancer Research resource center, which includes information for women affected by breast or gynecological cancers, provides a central location to find reliable information about cancer diagnoses, treatment, clinical trials, and survivorship. Patients and their support network can then learn to make informed and confident choices and become better equipped to take an active role in their care.

The 30th Annual World Pumpkin Weigh-Off Returns

The Great Pumpkin Farm is proud to host one of its most iconic events, the 30th Annual World Pumpkin Weigh-off on Saturday, October 4th, as part of its beloved Fall Festival.

Pumpkin growers from across the region and beyond will compete for a top prize of $6,500, with even bigger cash awards on the line for potential record-breaking pumpkins. A new National record will earn a $10,000 prize, OR if a grower breaks the world record of 2,749 pounds, they'll walk away with a whopping $15,000! Judging kicks off at 12:00 p.m., and winners will be announced immediately following official weigh-ins.

Last year's champion, Scott Andrusz of Williamsville, NY, tipped the scales at 2,342.5 pounds, and rumors are swirling that he may have another record-breaker ready to roll! The Great Pumpkin Farm has a rich history of record-setting pumpkins, including the first-ever 1,000 lb. pumpkin, which weighed 1,061 pounds and made it into the Guinness Book of World Records in 1996.

City Of Buffalo And The Broadway Market Celebrate “Halfway To Dyngus Day”
Get ready to polka, enjoy a pierogi, and raise a glass of piwo — the City of Buffalo and the Broadway Market are celebrating Halfway to Dyngus Day on Saturday, October 4, 2025, from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The event will take place inside the historic Broadway Market, located at 999 Broadway in Buffalo, and will feature food, music, and fun for the entire family. Guests can enjoy live music from Special Delivery from Noon to 3:00 p.m., along with local craft beer from Buffalo Brewing Company, which will be on hand selling their signature brews. Shoppers can also pick up their favorite Polish treats, including Polish sausage, horseradish mustard, and pierogi — all available at the one and only Broadway Market. “Halfway to Dyngus Day is a great way to celebrate Buffalo’s strong Polish-American heritage and support the vendors and traditions that make the Broadway Market a year-round destination,” said Buffalo Mayor Christopher P. Scanlon. “I encourage everyone to stop by, enjoy the entertainment, and pick up some local favorites.” The event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit broadwaymarketbuffalo.com or call 716-893-0705. You can also follow The Broadway Market on Facebook at facebook.com/broadway-marketbuffalo for updates.

When Will My Disability Become My Regular Social Security? - Ask Rusty

Dear Rusty: I hope you can answer this question. I'm currently receiving Social Security Disability benefits, and I will be turning 65 in February 2026. I'm confused as to how Social Security Disability transitions to regular Social Security, and when. I assume it's age 65 but maybe it's my retirement date? Also, does the amount remain the same or will it change? I'm not working. I've been on SSDI for about 15 years. Thank you.
Signed: Disabled Senior

Dear Disabled Senior: If you are collecting Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits, those SSDI benefits will automatically convert to become your regular Social Security retirement benefit when you reach your SS full retirement age (FRA) which, in your case, is age 67. For information, FRA today is somewhere between age 66 and 67, depending on your year of birth, and the full retirement age for everyone born in 1960 or later is age 67.

The change from SSDI to your regular Social Security benefit will be transparent to you because your monthly benefit amount will remain the same. SSDI benefits were originally awarded to you based upon your full retirement age entitlement when you applied for SSDI (even though you hadn't yet reached your FRA when you went on SSDI). Thus, the monthly benefit amount will not change because it is based on your lifetime earnings record, from before you became disabled. FYI, although age 65 was once Social Security's "retirement age," full retirement age for Social Security today is based on the year you were born. So, your SSDI benefit will automatically switch to become your regular Social Security retirement benefit as soon as you reach age 67. Essentially, the only thing that will change is the Social Security Trust Fund from which your benefits will be paid.

By Dave Gallagher AKA Joe Bortz

Memories

2507 Delaware back in the glory days. Remember this?

One of the things that I like to do on the internet is X or formerly Twitter. You can use a fictitious name and mostly say what you want to say, within reason of course. I have been shut off twice not knowing its policies. Nothing bad, just expressing tongue in cheek posts. One of the things I do like in that venue is the check questions some of the posters ask. One that caught my attention was, “What do you find more valuable to you than money?” To me the answer was easy. I made a comment showing just how I feel. At my extended age, I find my memories are more precious than wealth. I am so grateful that I still have the ability to recall so many of them. In my mind, I relive the events that occurred in my lifetime. The highlight of my past is the 67 years of wedding bliss I had with my wonderful late wife. I could write a book on the things we did in all those years. Raising eight kids, the trips, the summers at the cottage, beaches, so many fun times. There were some rough days but too few to mention. Having a large family is not easy. Especially if you are limited in resources, like education and financial ability. That’s what makes it more interesting, the struggle and then to achieve success. I think back on the hard times and have to smile when I remember what it was like to fail and then succeed in the many adventures I tried. Who ever knows what the future will bring. You have to be willing to take a chance. I did that when I started Gallagher Printing in the basement of our home on 15th Street. Did that without knowledge of printing or running a business. That worked out to some degree in my little shop on Tacoma. Being off the beaten path, I had to do something to let people know I existed. So I created the North Buffalo Rocket. Again, publishing a newspaper was not anything I knew anything about or expected. This was like dropping me off in the middle of Zimbabwe. I was totally unaware of how to proceed. That is why looking back it seems so fantastic. Back in the day we had three weeklies, Rocket, West Side Times and Riverside Times. Not bad for an Illiterate. It is with such a warm heart when I reminisce and think of the many people I met and became friends with in those struggling times. My days of going up and down Hertel Avenue trying to solicit ads for my publication. Bob and John Hazelet of Bob and John’s Pizzeria became two of my best friends. Tom Passanisi, Tony Leone to name a few. The many politicians. Mayor Jimmy Griffin, who I went to the four Super Bowls with, Tony Masilello, all the council members from the area. Al Capolla, Vince LoVallo, too many to mention. I could go on and on with names of people who helped and guided me and wish I could as they are embedded in my brain. So many great people have passed through my life and often I think of them. I truly believe that if there is a heaven, that it would be heaven to be able to see all those who have passed. I would be so happy to be able to visit with them again. It would take forever but then again, you would have forever. Imagine the loved ones you have met and even those who you have not met, like a great grandfather or mother. Existed before you did. Yes, that would be such a delight. But until that day comes, and it will, I live every day with the memories of a wonderful life. The thing is the longer I live the more memories! I can only store so many in my overloaded brain. However, I am doing all right. I try to live my life, what is left of it, to its fullest. Perhaps, just maybe, there are better days to come.

Kearns To Host Special DisAbility Awareness Day

Erie County Clerk Michael P. Kearns, in partnership with the Erie County Office for People with Disabilities, will host a special DisAbility Awareness Day on Saturday, October 25, from 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. at the Erie County Auto Bureau, located in the Urbanale Plaza at 2122 George Urban Blvd., Depew. No appointment is required for this community outreach event. During the event, individuals with disabilities and their families will be able to obtain state-issued photo identification through the Erie County Auto Bureau, as well as receive assistance with other Department of Motor Vehicles matters.

“October is National Disability Employment Awareness Month,” said Clerk Kearns. “My office continues to focus on inclusion and equity when it comes to assisting individuals with disabilities in obtaining government-issued identification. When employment opportunities arise, we want to ensure they are prepared with the required ID to accept the job. With encouragement and opportunities, I believe inclusion in the workplace is within everyone’s ability.”

Representatives from the Erie County Office for People with Disabilities will also be on site to share information and provide guidance on services, resources, and opportunities available to residents with disabilities and their families. Individuals who need to coordinate a reasonable accommodation may contact the Erie County Office for People with Disabilities at 716-858-6215.

Those seeking a Standard Driver’s License or non-Driver Identification must bring the following documents as proof of identification: Original or certified copy of their birth certificate and original Social Security card.

A full checklist of required DMV documents for a REAL ID compliant document is available at erie.gov/clerk/auto-bureau or by calling the Erie County Clerk’s Outreach Center at 716-858-8864.

The WNY Women's Foundation will present What She's Made Of 2025 at the Buffalo AKG Art Museum on Oct. 22. The morning event will feature keynote speaker Kweilin Ellingrud, a senior partner at leading global management consulting firm McKinsey & Company.

McKinsey's comprehensive studies, like "Women in the Workplace," provide actionable insights to help guide business decisions across corporate America. What She's Made Of, one of the WNY Women's Foundation's signature events, brings people together in support of uplifting women in our community for an intimate gathering combining networking with an empowering keynote presentation. "We're very pleased to welcome Kweilin Ellingrud to Buffalo for an informative and inspirational discussion about the obstacles women face in climbing the career ladder," said Sheri Scavone, CEO, WNY Women's Foundation. "Attendees will have the opportunity to gain important insights, connect with peers, and leave with the confidence to advocate for themselves and for others." Ellingrud, co-author of "The Broken Rung," has studied where the career ladder breaks for women, far before they reach the "glass ceiling." Despite performing well in higher education, women lose their advantage to men upon entering the workforce, with the first promotion to manager often marking the biggest career hurdle. For every 100 men promoted to manager, only 81 women advance. This "broken rung" weakens leadership pipelines, impacts women's lifetime earnings, and costs businesses top talent. At What She's Made Of, Ellingrud will share insight on navigating the "broken rung," and provide business-ess guidance on sustaining the leadership pipeline and achieving balanced representation. What She's Made Of, which raises critical funds to support the WNY Women's Foundation's mission, is made possible by presenting sponsor M&T Bank, event sponsor Delaware North, and keynote sponsor Broadview Federal Credit Union. What She's Made Of 2025 will be held Wednesday, Oct. 22 at the Buffalo AKG Art Museum, from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Tickets are available now at www.wnywomensfoundation.org.
