Happy Easter!

Easter is this Sunday, April 5th and Buffalo is gearing up for some Holiday Festivities! See below for details.

If you have experienced waking up to an Easter basket, you know how exciting the holiday's ritual can be. Filled with dyed eggs, rabbit-shaped chocolate, and candied treats, the baskets are a longstanding tradition come Easter.

The official start has begun for the 2026 Easter Season at a special "Blessing of the Basket" ceremony at the market. Market continues from now through Saturday, April 6th.

"Visiting Buffalo's Broadway Market at Easter time is a tradition for many families in Buffalo and Western New York," said Buffalo Mayor Christopher P. Scanlon. "Family-owned businesses, passed from generation to generation, have created some of our city's best loved foods and memories for generations. We are looking forward to another incredible Easter Season at the market."

Shop the historic Broadway Market for your favorite Easter foods and Easter crafts. All Easter vendors will be open from 8:00 am - 5:00 pm on Saturday, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm on Palm Sunday with extended hours the week of Easter.

For a list of entertainment during the Easter Season, go to broadwaymarket.org.

Hippity, Hoppity, Easter's on its way! Join us for a hopping' good time at our annual Easter egg hunt on Hertel Avenue! Grab your basket and get ready to collect some treats and special surprises! Located at St. Margaret's Front Lawn, 1395 Hertel Ave. Be sure to hop on by to say "Hi" to the Easter Bunny Saturday, April 4th at 11:00am. This event is for the kids and we ask that they have adults present with them.

And don't forget the 2026 Hertel Clean-Up on Saturday April 25th Starting at 9AM! Join us for the annual Hertel Clean-Up! We will be meeting at the HBA office at 1453 Hertel this year for a check in. Please be sure to bring your gloves, garden tools, shovels, and hand-held pickers!

Hertel Clean-Up is an event that reminds us that spring is in the air! It's a time to clean, beautify, and come together as a community to make our Avenue look fabulous to one and all. We welcome and encourage all businesses, volunteer organizations, and residents along Hertel to give some of their time to help in this yearly event that makes a difference in the overall look of our North Buffalo neighborhood.

We here at the Buffalo Rocket hope everybody enjoys their Easter Weekend! Happy Easter!

The 5th Live On Five 2026 Is Back At Buffalo Arts

The big auction of small works that reinvents itself year after year. Join Buffalo Arts Studio for Live on Five 2026.

The annual Auction Event premieres Saturday, April 18, 7:00 – 11:00 pm.

Julia Bottoms. Ani Hoover. AJ Fries. Edreys Wajed. Millie Chen. Bill Maggio. Jozef Bajus. Laura Valkwitch. Bree Gilliam. The Solo Roths. These names are just a tiny sampling of the artists' work you may find (among so many more) at Live on Five 2026, Buffalo Arts Studio's big auction of small works. Along with these well-known names, we have expanded our reach to include 65 new artists, shining a light on rising stars in our creative community.

Building on the success of the past, Live on Five returns to Buffalo Arts Studio on April 18, 2026. For its fifth anniversary, this highly anticipated fundraiser will feature close to 700 of 5" x 5" works—all starting at $25 with "buy now" limits of $250—and multiple cash bars as part of a live bidding party.

On Saturday, April 18, gather your friends and join the Buffalo Arts Studio family for the live auction and fundraiser that will take over the galleries with art, music, and more. From 7–11 pm, guests are invited to see the pieces they are bidding on live and in person while enjoying drinks from the cash bar, food provided by Extra Extra Pizza, and good company.

Attendees can expect to make some hard decisions as part of the live mobile auction featuring nearly 700 original 5" x 5" works by 250 local artists. The complete list of participating artists for Live on Five can be found on the website.

For tickets and all the details on when the exhibition is on view (March 27–April 17), the live bidding period (April 16–18), and the exciting live bidding party (the evening of April 18), visit the event page on Buffalo Arts Studio's website at www.buffaloartsstudio.org/live-on-five-2026.

Last but definitely not least, a huge thank you to our sponsors:

I'll Be 65 Soon And Am Working. Must I Enroll In Medicare? - Ask Rusty

Dear Rusty: I will be 65 in October and I am working full-time. My goal is to work until age 67, which is my full retirement age, or until age 70. I heard I have to apply for Medicare Part A only. Is this true or will I be penalized? And do I have to go to the Social Security office to do this, or can I do it online? And then will they be still giving me my Medicare through the next five years of working, or do I have to pay for something? I will have my own healthcare insurance. Thank you for your help. Signed: Confused

Dear Confused: 1. You do not need to claim Social Security benefits when you enroll in Medicare

2. You do not need to enroll in Medicare at age 65 if you have "creditable" healthcare coverage from your employer ("creditable" is a group plan with at least 20 participants)

Thus, it is perfectly okay for you to delay taking your Social Security benefits until age 67 (your SS full retirement age), or even until age 70 when you will get the maximum SS benefit you are entitled to. And if you now have "creditable" healthcare coverage from your employer, you can delay enrolling in Medicare until such time as your employer's healthcare coverage ends. When you stop working, you will enter a Medicare

Special Enrollment Period (SEP), during which you can enroll in Medicare without incurring a Late Enrollment Penalty.

Whenever you decide to enroll in Medicare (or Social Security), you will not need to visit your local SSA office to do so. You can enroll in Medicare either online at www.ssa.gov/medicare/sign-up or you can call SSA at 1.800.772.1213 to make an appointment to enroll in Medicare on the telephone. Similarly, when you are ready to claim Social Security, you can do so online at www.ssa.gov/apply or you can call 1.800.772.1213 to make an appointment to apply for SS over the phone. To apply online, however, you should first create your personal "my Social Security" online account at www.ssa.gov/myaccount. Creating your online SS account now (at age 65) will facilitate later online enrollment and will also provide you with an estimate of your SS benefit amounts at various ages - e.g., now at age 65, at your FRA of 67, or at age 70. And that should help you decide when it is best for you to claim Social Security.

A few final points:

- You should verify with your employer's health insurance provider that they don't require you to enroll in Medicare at age 65. Most employer plans don't, but some do.
- You don't need to enroll in Medicare Part A or Part B now as long as your employer's coverage is creditable. And it's okay to enroll in Medicare a couple of months prior to your employer's creditable healthcare coverage ending (when you stop working), requesting that your Medicare coverage starts when your employer's healthcare ends. This will ensure that there is no gap in your healthcare coverage. If your employer coverage is creditable, you will not suffer a Medicare Late Enrollment Penalty for enrolling after age 65.

The Solar-Powered Buffalo Heritage Carousel is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that owns and operates a historic, park-style menagerie carousel at Canalside in Buffalo. Its mission is to demonstrate the power of renewable energy while preserving and celebrating a locally made historic carousel, creating a destination for education, joy and inspiration for visitors of all ages.

Designed and manufactured in 1924 by Spillman Engineering Co. of North Tonawanda, the carousel was meticulously restored over several years by local artists and craftspeople before reopening in 2021. Today, it operates under a solar-powered roof and is enclosed in the KeyBank Roundhouse, an award-winning, sustainably constructed landmark on Buffalo's waterfront.

As one of only five solar-powered carousels in the world, the attraction highlights Western New York's legacy in carousel manufacturing, historic preservation and clean energy innovation. Located at the terminus of the Erie Canal, the carousel serves as a vibrant community gathering place and a signature tourism destination, offering affordable, nostalgic experiences for locals and the millions of visitors to Western New York each year.

Special DisAbility Awareness Day

Kearns and Office for People with Disabilities to Host Special DisAbility Awareness Day.

Erie County Clerk Michael P. Kearns, in partnership with the Erie County Office for People with Disabilities, will host a special DisAbility Awareness Day on Saturday, April 18, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Erie County Auto Bureau, located in Urbandale Plaza, 2122 George Urban Blvd., Depew. This community outreach event is open to the public, and no appointment is required.

During the event, individuals with disabilities and their families can obtain state-issued photo identification and receive assistance with a variety of Department of Motor Vehicles services.

“April is Autism Acceptance Month,” said County Clerk Kearns. “Our office remains committed to fostering inclusion and equity by helping individuals of all abilities obtain the identification they need. Access to proper ID is essential, especially when employment opportunities arise—and we want every resident to be prepared.” Kearns added, “With the right support and opportunity, inclusion in the workplace is achievable for all.”

Representatives

from the Erie County Office for People with Disabilities will be on-site to provide information, guidance, and connections to valuable services and resources available to residents and their families. Individuals requiring reasonable accommodation are encouraged to contact the office in advance at 716-858-6215.

Those seeking a Standard Driver’s License or non-driver identification must bring original or certified documents, including a birth certificate and Social Security card, as proof of identity.

For a complete checklist of documents required for a REAL ID-compliant credential, visit erie.gov/clerk/autobureau or contact the Erie County Clerk’s Outreach Center at 716-858-8864.
